

ART WALK

Silent Auction will once again include art works in every media. Marcia Bein, Hannah Eisenberg, and Claudia Sego have the enormous task of curating this show. Works by Red Grooms, Joyce Treiman, Roland Reiss, Eric Orr and Laurie Pincus will be among the three hundred art pieces displayed on ART WALK Sunday.

The ART WALK Dinner will be bigger and better than ever this year, but Adele Yellin, Dinner Chair, is planning a fabulous, innovative event at the Santa Monica Airport hangar catered by Rococo with flowers by Roots and Shoots.

Betty Tuchman, Clinic Vice President of Development, has helped to secure this year's corporate sponsors, Merrill Lynch Realty and National Medical Enterprises. As Ad Book Chair she is trying to make the journal even bigger than last year's 160-page blockbuster. Also soliciting corporations and businesses for "in-kind" contributions is Shirley Wineberg.

Genevieve Charney, Graphics Chair, and Berta Pitt, Mailing Chair, are working hard to assure that you receive your ART WALK invitation in plenty of time to buy your tickets by mail and avoid the rush.

Irma Colen, President of the Venice Family Clinic Board, is coordinating the Registration and lending her expertise to all the members of the committee.

Sheila Goldberg and Rick Merrill work out details of Merrill Lynch Realty ART WALK sponsorship.

Peter Alexander signs posters in his studio.

ART WALK '88 Great Success

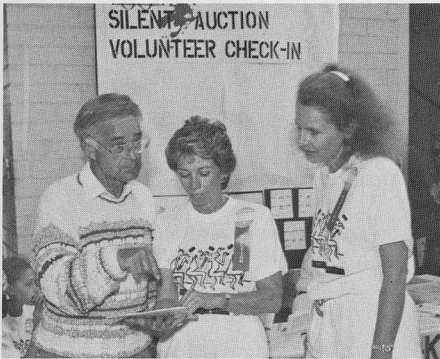

The ART WALK could not have happened without the help, support and hard work of all the ART WALK artists here relaxing at a promotional party at Rebecca's restaurant along with Sheila Goldberg, ART WALK Chair, Rebecca Marder, restaurateur, and Irma Colen, President.
