Michele Roberts: Recent Paintings and Drawings opens at the Jennifer Dumas Gallery, Los Angeles, on June 5, 1983 in a gala event from 4 to 7 in the evening. This exhibition debuts Michele Roberts' new, large-scale figurative paintings. Ms. Roberts' works address the traditions of a symbolist narrative through a vernacular of fauvist color realized in a contemporary attitude.

Michele Roberts' new works exude a playful paradox; the seemingly whimsical subjects of each piece (a bright yellow horse or a man in a tuxedo) soon reveal the artist's preoccupation with subconscious spiritual mysteries. Through vibrant bold fields of color and silhouetted figures Roberts pronounces herself an astute draftsman and a sensitive colorist. The wit and charm of Roberts' works add a refreshing accountability to the hand of this most provocative artist.

The Jennifer Dumas Gallery is located at 756 South Spring Street, 2nd Floor, in Los Angeles. Gallery hours are Wednesday through Saturday from noon to five, and by appointment.

Michele Roberts: Recent Paintings and Drawings will be on view through July 16, 1983.
